

RELIEF NURSERY THERAPEUTIC CLASSROOM TEACHER

.75 FTE (30 HOURS/WEEK; M-F APPROXIMATELY 8:00-2:00)

Salary Range: $12.50-$14.00/hour

Vision: A community that works collaboratively to ensure that all children and families have access to early education, behavioral and mental health services to improve their well-being.

Mission: Old Mill Center for Children and Families is a community-based, family-oriented center empowering children and families of diverse backgrounds to optimize their potential through specially designed education and therapy programs.

Position Summary: The Teacher will be responsible to help in the planning, implementing and evaluating programs and activities designed to address the individual and developmental needs of children, 6 years of age and under enrolled in the Relief Nursery. Primary assignments: Toddler and respite therapeutic classrooms, parent group child care and transportation.

Qualifications: AA early childhood and eligible for a Step 9 on the Oregon Registry and a minimum of 1-year early childhood experience. Ability to speak Spanish is preferred, but not required. Must have early childhood knowledge/ability to respond appropriately to each child's developmental level, to nurture and support each child's social & emotional skills; to form positive relationships with families; flexibility, good organizational skills; and the willingness to work as an engaged, supportive member of a team.

Experience/background working with families with multiple stressors is helpful. In addition, must have an agreement with the OMCCF and Relief Nursery missions.